Grade Level: Early Childhood

Description:
Let your students act out Makkas Tzefardeiah with these adorable, easy-to-make leaping frogs. Great for Parshas Va’eiira, Pesach or a unit on reptiles! Kids will love leaping around with their frogs slipped onto their hands.

Goals/Objectives:
Students will act out the Makkah of Tzefardeiah in a kinesthetic way.

Materials Needed:
- paper plates
- green construction paper, cut in strips
- green crayons
- two black circles and a red tongue out of construction paper
- glue

Instructions:
1. Color the bottom side of the paper plate green.
2. Cut out four legs form the green construction paper.
3. Glue on two of the legs on top of the plate and two of them at the other end, on the bottom of the plate.
4. Glue on a green strip of construction paper only at the two ends, towards the top of the plate.
5. Glue two black circles as eyes on top of the green strip of paper.
6. Glue on a red tongue in between the two front legs.
7. Child slips his hand under the green strip of paper to wear the frog.
